FISHING RIGHTS ALLOCATION PROCESS (FRAP)

MINISTER TINA JOEMAT- PETERSSON EXTENDS FISHING RIGHTS APPLICATION DISTRIBUTION PROCESS

The Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, Ms Tina-Joemat-Pettersson has extended the process for the distribution of fishing rights application forms to ensure that applicants are assisted in understanding how to complete their application forms, and to make application forms available nationally. Prospective applicants may collect application forms and policies for the listed eight fishing sectors from the following venues during the dates and times stipulated in the table below. The fishing sectors are KZN Prawn Trawl, Demersal Shark, Squid, Tuna Pole, Hake Handline, White Mussel, Oyster and Traditional Linefish

1. The invitation to apply for these rights as well as the general policy, sector-specific policies on the allocation and management of fishing rights, the specimen application forms as well as explanatory notes have been published in Government Gazette Number 36675 dated 17 July 2013 (Notice 750 and Notice 751).
2. The extended application distribution process as set out in Table 1 will commence on Monday, 26 August 2013 at 08:00 and closes on Friday, 6 September 2013 at 16:00.
  - 2.1 Persons wishing to apply for rights to undertake commercial fishing in the abovementioned sectors must take the following to one of the distribution centres listed in Table 1 below:
    - (i) the identity document of the individual collecting the form and a copy of the first page of this person's identity document;
    - (ii) if the application form is collected by someone else on behalf of an applicant then a letter authorizing the individual collecting the application form to do so on behalf of the applicant and a copy of the collectors' and applicant's identity or registration documents.
  - 2.2 Applicants will be required to provide the applicant's postal address, telephone, fax and cellular numbers and e-mail address.

A public notice will be issued regarding dates for the receipting process in due course.
