List of Tables		Table 6. 3 : Fertilizer sales in South Africa 2005 to	00
		2010 Table 6. 4 : Land transferred by redistribution and	98
Introduction		restitution as at 31 March 2007	102
Table 1. 1: Definitions of Drivers, Pressures, State,	_	Table 6. 5 : Breakdown of land transfers as at 31	102
Impacts and Responses	5	March 2006	102
Sustainability in South Africa		Table 6. 6: Land claims settled in 2006 to 2007	102
Table 2. 1 : A matrix of possible needs and satisfiers	20
Table 2. 2 : Classification of Ecosystem Services	21	Biodiversity and ecosystem health
Table 2. 3 : Ecological footprint of countries	24	Table 7. 1: Summary of results for ecosystem threat status and ecosystem protection level in each	111
What is affecting our environment?		environment Table 7. 2 : Well-established invasive alien plant	111
Table 3. 1: Estimates for fertility, life expectancy and		species surveyed in the National Invasive Alien Plant
infant mortality levels for 2001 to 2011	30	Survey 2010	118
Table 3. 2 : Net migration (province of enumeration		Table 7. 3 : Valuation of ecosystem services	122
by previous province of residence) as per Census 2011	21	Table 7. 4: Protected areas in South Africa according
Table 3. 3 : Number of households in South Africa:	31	to the Register of Protected Areas	123
Census 1996, 2001 and 2011 and Community
Survey 2007	34	Inland water
		Table 8. 1: Utilizable groundwater exploitable
Governance		potential (UGEP) per WMA	136
Table 4. 1 : Institutional structures and National		Table 8. 2 : Definitions of trophic status	141
Committee on Sustainable Development	48	Table 8. 3 : The classification of the trophic status	141
Table 4. 2: Environmental management suit of Acts	50	Table 8. 4 : Trophic status of water selected dams in South Africa	142
Table 4. 3: National legislation with environmental		Table 8. 5 : River health categories	145
overlap	50	Table 8. 6 : Comparative analysis of Blue Drop Status	143
Table 4. 4 : Specific regulations applicable to	5 4	at a national level	149
environmental governance	51	Table 8. 7: A comparison of provincial blue drop
Table 4. 5 : The environmental management policy environment	53	scores as percentages	150
Table 4. 6: National government department	33	Table 8. 8: National Green Drop comparative analysis environmental responsibilities	55	Table 8. 9: Approved and pending applications under
Table 4. 7 : Outcome focus areas and links to the		section 21 of the National Water Act	151
SAEO	56
Table 4. 8 : Provincial expenditure on environmental		Oceans and coasts management	60	Table 9. 1 : Recognized commercial fisheries in South	162
Homes estherents		Africa Table 9. 2 : Top ten marine litter items collected	102
Human settlements	65	worldwide between 1986 and 2011, ranked according	ıσ
Table 5. 1 : Distribution of population per province Table 5. 2 : Distribution of population, economic	05	to volume collected and shown as a percentage of th	_
activity for urban and rural settlements	67	total debris collected per item	168
Table 5. 3 : Distribution of population, economic	0,	Table 9. 3: Volume of dredged material disposed of activity and area for urban settlements	67	into the marine environment from 2006 to 2011	169
Table 5. 4: Per centage of households living in		Table 9. 4 : Marine alien invasive species recorded in informal type of dwellings by province	73	South Africa from 1992 to 2010	169
Table 5. 5: Population density vs. modal split for		Table 9. 5 : South African sea-level rise rates from 1957 to 2009 for various stations	170
metros	76	Table 9. 6 : Total cargo handled at ports of South	170
Table 5. 6 : Per centage of households that have		Africa in metric tonnes from 2003 to 2009	171
access to piped water per province for the period 2001 to 2011	78	Table 9. 7: Recommended target values as detailed Table 5. 7 : Per centage distribution of households	70	in the South African Water Quality Guidelines for by type of toilet facilities and province for the period		Coastal Marine Waters	172
2001 to 2011	79	Table 9. 8: Percentage of coastline defended in the
Table 5. 8: Poverty headcount by year	81	City of Cape Town, eThekwini and Nelson Mandela Bay municipalities as at 2011	172
Land		Air quality
Table 6. 1: Overview of urban land use classification		Air quality Table 10. 1: Pollutants of concern in South Africa	187
in South Africa	92	Table 10. 1: Pollutants of concern in South Africa	10/
Table 6. 2 : The extent and distribution of indigenous	0.4	Management Plans	198
forests and woodland area by type and class	94	· U - · · · · ·

Climate change		Table 13. 14 : HCRW treatment capacity in operation	294
Table 11.1 : Greenhouse gas emissions trends and		Table 13. 15: Summary of NWMS goals and targets	298
percentage change from 1994 to 2000	211	Table 13. 16: Number of IWMPs that were developed	t
Table 11. 2 : Concentration of greenhouse gases in		as a result of the 1999 NWMS	300
the atmosphere under SRES scenario families	214	Table 13. 17: Total recycled paper and packaging
Table 11. 3 : Direct and indirect impacts on marine		material for 2007	301
and coastal environments	219	Table 13. 18: Waste glass recycled during the period
Table 11. 4 : Direct and indirect impacts on		2005/06 to 2007/08	301
biodiversity	221	Table 13. 19: Circumstances for requesting a waste
Table 11. 5 : Projected climate chnage impacts on		impact report	302
crop agriculture and livestock	222	·
Table 11. 6 : Direct, indirect and longer term impacts		Options for action on human health as a result of climate change	223	Table 15. 1: Trend analysis per environmental feature	2335
Table 11. 7 : Summary of the projected provincial		Table 15. 2 : Suggested actions – creating sustainable impacts of climate change	224	human settlements	344
Table 11. 8 : Mitigation responses at the provincial		Table 15. 3: Suggested actions – sustainable land use	!
and local scale	227	management	345
Table 11. 9 : Examples of sectoral adaptation	,	Table 15. 4: Suggested actions – improving freshwate	er responses	229	ecosystems and balancing demands for water	346
Table 11. 10 : Provincial and local adaptation	223	Table 15. 5 : Suggested actions – using marine and responses	230	coastal resources wisely	347
responses	250	Table 15. 6 : Suggested actions – sustaining
Energy		biodiversity and ecosystems	348
Table 12. 1 : Energy intensity per GDP for the period		Table 15. 7 : Suggested actions – managing waste	349
2002 to 2009	242	Table 15. 8 : Suggested actions – improving air auality
Table 12. 2 : Comparison of transport energy use by	242	Table 15. 9 : Suggested actions – moving towards	330
mode: Nelson Mandela Bay 2004	246	energy efficiency and the transition to a low-carbon
Table 12. 3 : Residential energy consumption by	240	future	351
income group and end-use in Gauteng in 2009 [PJ]	247	Table 15. 10 : Suggested actions – building climate	331
Table 12. 4 : Residential energy consumption by	247	resilience	352
income group and energy carrier in Gauteng [PJ]	247	resilience	332
Table 12. 5 : Total annual vehicle emissions (exhaust	247	List of Figures lable 12. 5. Total allitual verifice ellissions (exitaust		E13t 01 1 15 41 C3
	250
and evaporative releases) for 2002	258	Introduction and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon		Introduction Figure 1 1: The DPSIR framework	4
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions		Introduction Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework	4
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7 : City level progress in terms of policy	259	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework	4
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions		Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa	4
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7 : City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation	259	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7 : City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management	259	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability	19
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7 : City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1 : Employment within municipal waste	259 269	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability	19 19
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6 : A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7 : City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1 : Employment within municipal waste management departments	259269281	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries	19 19 21
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities	259 269	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut	19 19
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the	259 269 281 282	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities	19 19 21 22
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector	259 269 281 282 282	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut	19 19 21
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in	259 269 281 282 282	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation	19 19 21 22
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste	259 269 281 282 282	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment?	19 19 21 22
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence	259 269 281 282 282	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the	19 19 21 22 23
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa	259 269 281 282 282 282 285	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature	19 19 21 22
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the	19 19 21 22 23
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution	259 269 281 282 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature	19 19 21 22 23
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution	19 19 21 22 23 29
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste	259 269 281 282 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010	19 19 21 22 23 29 29
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13	259 269 281 282 282 282 282 285 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resource	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34 e
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000)	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000) Figure 3. 6: GDP and unemployment change from	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34 e 35
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7 Table 13. 10: Coverage of free basic refuse services	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286 287 288 290	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000)	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34 e
and evaporative releases) for 2002 Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7 Table 13. 10: Coverage of free basic refuse services Table 13. 11: Hazardous waste categorization	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000) Figure 3. 6: GDP and unemployment change from 2008 to 2012	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 32 34 e 35
Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7 Table 13. 10: Coverage of free basic refuse services Table 13. 11: Hazardous waste categorization Table 13. 12: Number of licenced hazardous landfill	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286 286 287 288 290 291	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000) Figure 3. 6: GDP and unemployment change from 2008 to 2012 Governance	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 34 e 35 36
Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7 Table 13. 10: Coverage of free basic refuse services Table 13. 11: Hazardous waste categorization Table 13. 12: Number of licenced hazardous landfill sites in South Africa as at 2010	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286 287 288 290	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000) Figure 3. 6: GDP and unemployment change from 2008 to 2012 Governance Figure 4. 1: Interaction between government, people	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 34 e 35 36
Table 12. 6: A comparison of energy sector carbon dioxide emissions for select countries and/or regions Table 12. 7: City level progress in terms of policy development, regulation and implementation Waste management Table 13. 1: Employment within municipal waste management departments Table 13. 2: Financial census of municipalities Table 13. 3: Estimates of capital investment in the waste sector Table 13. 4: Cost estimates for capital investments in solid waste Table 13. 5: Waste management facilities licence status in South Africa Table 13. 6: General waste categories Table 13. 7: Percentage municipal waste contribution by province in South Africa for 2011 Table 13. 8: Operating revenue for solid waste function by category municipality for the period 2006/07 to 2012/13 Table 13. 9: Estimated general waste disposal capacity of at 'general' landfills in 2006/7 Table 13. 10: Coverage of free basic refuse services Table 13. 11: Hazardous waste categorization Table 13. 12: Number of licenced hazardous landfill	259 269 281 282 282 282 285 286 286 286 287 288 290 291	Figure 1. 1: The DPSIR framework Sustainability in South Africa Figure 2. 1: Interlocking Circles Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 2: Nested Model of Sustainability Figure 2. 3: Planetary Boundaries Figure 2. 4: The Oxfam Sustainability Doughnut Figure 2. 5: Nested model of sustainability, priorities andmeans of implementation What is affecting our environment? Figure 3. 1: A linear conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 2: A circular conceptualization of the relationship between humans and nature Figure 3. 3: Rates of HIV prevalence distribution by province for 2010 Figure 3. 4: An illustrative example of decoupling Figure 3. 5: The global interrelation between resourc use and income (175 countries in the year 2000) Figure 3. 6: GDP and unemployment change from 2008 to 2012 Governance	19 19 21 22 23 29 29 34 e 35 36

Human settlements		Figure 9. 11: Expenditure estimates of oceans and
Figure 5. 1: Population growth over time	65	coastal research by DEA for the period 2007 to
Figure 5. 2: Housing type	71	2014 in Rands per million	176
Figure 5. 3: Example of the high coverage of medium
income housing	72	Air quality
Figure 5. 4: Example of subsidized housing	72	Figure 10. 1: Consumption of petrol and diesel in
Figure 5. 5: Informal settlement next to a mine dump	73	South Africa from 1988 to 2009	184
Figure 5. 6: Number of rented informal units in large		Figure 10. 2 : Measured annual average PM ₁₀ mass
municipalities in 2008	73	concentrations at a) Johannesburg; b) Cape Town;
Figure 5. 7: Energy demand by economic sector for		c) eThekwini and d) Vaal Triangle monitoring
2006	74	stations for 2005 to 2010	188
Figure 5. 8: Expenditure on transport	75	Figure 10. 3 : PM ₁₀ concentrations at the Highveld
Figure 5. 9: Relationship between population density	•	Priority Area	189
and mode of transport	75	Figure 10. 4: Sulphur dioxide concentrations in Figure 5. 10: Per centage of households using		Cape Town	189 electricity for lighting by province for the period		Figure 10. 5: Sulphur dioxide concentrations in 2001 to 2011	77	Johannesburg	189
		Figure 10. 6: Measured annual average sulphur
Biodiversity and ecosystem health		dioxide (SO ₂) concentrations in a) Vaal Triangle;
Figure 7. 1: Numbers of known species in South		b) eThekwini; c) Highveld and d) Richards Bay
Africa for major groupings of living organisms	109	monitoring stations for various periods	189
Figure 7. 2: Proportion of threatened species for		Figure 10. 7: Ozone depleting substances
those taxonomic groups that have been		consumption trends in South Africa for the period comprehensively assessed, based on the most		June 2004 to June 2009	193
recent available Red Lists	109	Figure 10. 8: Average maximum monthly UV indices
Figure 7. 3 : Ecosystem threat status for terrestrial		Figure 10. 9: Average atmospheric mercury emissions
ecosystem types	113	(1 metric tonne = 1 Mg) estimated for different sourc
Figure 7. 4: Per centage of river length in good		categories in South Africa during 2004	195
ecological condition (equivalent to A or B Present		Figure 10. 10: An illustration of the Basa njengo Ecological State category) for main rivers and		Magogo method	198
tributaries	115	Climata abanca
		Climate change
Inland water		Figure 11. 1: Simplified model of the natural	200
Figure 8. 1: Eco-status of River Health Surveys		greenhouse effect	209
reported on from 2005 to 2006	145	Figure 11. 2: Global annual emissions of	240
Figure 8. 2: WfW Programme: National statistics for		anthropogenic greenhouse gases from 1970 to 2004 job creation (number of beneficiaries) during alien		Figure 11. 3: South Africa's greenhouse gas emissions
plant clearing operations	149	by sector in 2000	211
		Figure 11. 4: Annual mean temperature anomalies
Oceans and coasts		(base period 1961 to 90) of 27 climate stations in	242
Figure 9. 1: South Africa's fisheries sector as at 2011	161	South Africa for the period 1961 to 2011	212
Figure 9. 2: Status of commonly caught linefish		Figure 11. 5 : Examples of the projected impacts of	216
species versus the status of South African marine		an increase in temperature in South Africa	216
resources generally as at 2011	162	Figure 11. 6 : Proposed peak-plateau-decline trajectory for South Africa's emissions	225
Figure 9. 3: Total catch production for South Africa		trajectory for South Africa's effissions	223
for the period 1999 to 2008	162	Energy
Figure 9. 4: Trends in numbers of wandering		Figure 12. 1: Domestic energy supply 2010	243
albatrosses breeding at South Africa's Marion and		Figure 12. 2: Sectoral energy consumption as	243
Prince Edward Islands for the period 1982 to 2009	163	percentage of total for 2010	243
Figure 9. 5: Growth in production of the marine		Figure 12. 3: Final energy consumption per capita	243
aquaculture industry from 2000 to 2010	164	for 2010 period 2010	244
Figure 9. 6: Number of permits issued for non-		Figure 12. 4: Final energy consumption by sector
consumptive ocean and coastal activities between		for the period 2010	244
the period 2006 to 2011	165	Figure 12. 5 : Final energy consumption by sector for
Figure 9. 7: Recorded quantities of spilt oil in litres	166	the period 2009	244
Figure 9. 8: Count of litter collected during the		Figure 12. 6: Percentage distribution of energy to annual beach clean-up for the period 2007 to 2011		the industrial sub-sectors in South Africa for the
for the Eastern, Northern and Western Cape	168	period 2002 to 2009	245
Figure 9. 9: Condition of cool temperate, warm		Figure 12. 7 : CO ₂ Emissions in the South African temperate and subtropical estuaries as at 2011	173	transport sector for 2010	246
Figure 9. 10 : Ecosystem protection levels of South	4.70	Figure 12. 8: Carbon dioxide emissions per passenger
African estuaries as at 2011	173	(grams per km)	246

Figure 12. 9 : Residential electricity consumption by		Figure 14. 13: The number of formal households
income band for eThekwini 2012	247	established in South Africa between 1995 and 2009
Figure 12. 10: Natural gas production and		together with the number of households that have consumption for the period 1998 to 2008	256	access to electricity and access to water infrastructur	re
Figure 12. 11: Consumption of coal in different		that equals or exceeds the RDP standards	320 sectors	257	Figure 14. 14: The probable future state of the Figure 12. 12: Ash emitted per 1 kWh of power	257	environment in South Africa in response to the period 1990 to 2010	259	Figure 14. 15: The probable future state of the Figure 12. 14: World greenhouse gas emissions		environment in South Africa in response to the flowchart for 2010	260	predicted future state of forestry	322
Figure 12. 13: Greenhouse gas emissions for the		predicted future state of agriculture	321
Waste management		Options for action
Figure 13. 1: Waste management hierarchy as per		Figure 15. 1: Options for action and tipping points in the National Waste Management Strategy	279	relation to the sustainability model	330
Figure 13. 2: Waste sector employment estimates	281	Figure 15. 2: Conceptual diagram of the food-water-
Figure 13. 3: Waste composition for general waste in		energy nexus	332
2011 shown as percentage by mass	286	Figure 15. 3: Emissions reduction strategy from
Figure 13. 4: Analysis of available general waste data		the LTMS	333
(from municipalities) for South Africa	287	Figure 15. 4: Global change research plan	356
Figure 13. 5: Municipal waste composition		Figure 15. 5: Linking the South African Environment
(percentage by mass)	288	Outlook with environment sector R,D&E priorities	357
Figure 13. 6: Percentage (by mass) composition of		Figure 15. 6: Interventions and benefits from
hazardous waste in 2011	292	investing in ecological infrastructure	361
Figure 13. 7: Scale of recycling industry by product	301	List of Mone
Figure 13. 8: Employment in recycling industry by	204	List of Maps
product	301	Human asttlemente
Environmental outlook		Human settlements
		Map 5. 1: Distribution of human settlements in South Africa	cc
Figure 14. 1: The relationships between the			66 67
environment, economy, society and the individual as		Map 5. 2: Population density in South Africa	67
the foundation for understanding the concept of sustainability	307	Map 5. 3: Distribution of densities in the City of Johannesburg	70
Figure 14. 2: The interactions and relationships	307	Map 5. 4: Distribution of densities in Gauteng	71 between individuals, society, economy and the		Map 3. 4. Distribution of defisities in Gauteing	/ 1
environment in which those individuals occur	309	Land
Figure 14. 3: The major areas of concern in respect	303	Map 6. 1: Land cover map	90
of the current state of the environment	309	Map 6. 2: Land use systems in South Africa	91
Figure 14. 4: The major areas of improvement in		Map 6. 3: Potential for arable agriculture	93
respect of the current state of the environment	310	Map 6. 4: Simplified mining locality map	95
Figure 14. 5: The key variables and their		Map 6. 4. Simplified mining locality map	93
interrelationships that result in the existing state of		Biodiversity and ecosystem health
the environment	310	Map 7. 1: South Africa's nine biomes	112
Figure 14. 6: The actual population for South Africa,		Map 7. 2: Ecosystem protection levels for together with the growth rate in the equivalent		terrestrial ecosystems	113
period	312	Map 7. 3: Focus areas for land-based protected
Figure 14. 7: Employment in South Africa between		area expansion in South Africa	114
2002 and 2010	312	Map 7. 4: The condition of South Africa's wetland
Figure 14. 8: Living standards measurements (LSM)		ecosystems	116
for the ten wealth groups in South Africa	313	Map 7. 5: Map of ecological condition in the coastal,
Figure 14. 9: The reduction in severely malnourished		inshore and offshore benthic (seabed) environment children under the age of five years as well as the		Map 7. 6: Map of ecosystem protection levels for improved TB cure rate between 2001 and 2009 in		coastal, inshore and offshore benthic habitat types,
South Africa	313	showing clearly that almost no offshore ecosystems
Figure 14. 10: The quarterly value added by industry		are well protected	117 and gross domestic product at constant 2005 prices	313	Map 7. 7: Areas of biome stability in the face of
Figure 14. 11 : The probable future state of the		climate change	121
environment in South Africa in response to the predicted future state of mining and electricity	240	Inland water generation	318	Map 8. 1: WMA and provinces of South Africa	134
Figure 14. 12 : The probable future state of the		Map 8. 2: High groundwater recharge areas	136
environment in South Africa in response to the	319	Map 8. 3: High water yield areas in South Africa	137

Map 8. 4: Future possible pressures on the water		Governance resources due to possible developments in different		Box 4. 1: Strategies that address sustainable sectors	138	development for South Africa	58
Map 8. 5: Surface water quality trends for Chloride, Sulphate, Total Dissolved Solids and Nitrates for the		Human settlements period 2003 to 2012	140	Box 5. 1: Settlements and the water cycle	64
Map 8. 6: Trophic status of major impoundments		Box 5. 2: Rural sprawl and environmental where water quality problems are present	141	degradation	68
Map 8. 7: Groundwater salinity trends for South		Box 5. 3 : Protection and sustainable management
Africa in 2012	143	of Durban's natural resource base	70
		Box 5. 4 : Verkykerskop: small-scale agricultural town	_
Occasional coacts		box 5. 4. Verkykerskop. Sman-scale agricultural town	1 /4
Oceans and coasts	4.50	Diadivarity and acceptant health
Map 9. 1: The coastal zone of South Africa	158	Biodiversity and ecosystem health
Map 9. 2: Offshore oil and gas exploration and		Box 7. 1: Wildlife poaching and trafficking (rhino license blocks in South Africa's EEZ	160	horn case study)	120
Map 9. 3: Map of the South African marine diamond		Box 7. 2: Custodians of Rare and Endangered mining concession areas, showing the position of the		Wildflowers	124
ML3/2003 mining license area	160	Box 7. 3: Case study on access and benefit sharing
Map 9. 4: Distribution of coastal outfall discharge		with indigenous community – commercializing points in South Africa as at 2011	167	Sceletium	127
		Box 7. 4: Cycads - South Africa's most threatened
Air quality		plant group	128
Map 10. 1: Map of fire incidences in South Africa
for January 2000 to December 2008	185	Inland water
Map 10. 2: Overview of the government-owned air	100	Box 8. 1: Adopt-a-River Programme	144 quality monitoring networks	187	box 6. 1. Adopt-a-River Programme	144
Map 10. 3: Seasonal atmospheric transport from	107
Zambia over the southern Africa subcontinent	192	Oceans and coasts
	192	Box 9. 1: Case study: Sand budgets, mining and
Map 10. 4: Total (dry plus wet) acidic deposition	102	impacts on sandy beaches	159
rates (meq/m² per year)	193	Box 9. 2: Seabird bycatch	163
Map 10. 5: Location of the Vaal Triangle Priority		Box 9. 3: Anticipated impacts and responses to Area in South Africa	197	climate change in coastal areas as detailed in the
Map 10. 6: Location of the Highveld Priority Area in		National Climate Change Response White Paper	170
South Africa	197	Box 9. 4: Two examples of the growth in oceans and coast research: West Indian Ocean Marine Science Climate change		Association (WIOMSA) and the Applied Centre for
Map 11. 1: Summary of the most recent temperature	e	Climate and Earth System Science (ACCESS)	176
trend analysis	212	cimiate and Earth System Science (1188233)	1,0
Map 11. 2: Ratio of intermediate future (2046 to		Air quality
2065) to present (1971 to 1990) mean annual		Box 10. 1 : Carbon dioxide vehicle emissions tax	184
stream flow	218
Map 11. 3: Ratio of far future (2081 to 2100) to		Box 10. 2: Mine residue areas in Gauteng	185
present (1971 to 1990) mean annual stream flow	218	Box 10. 3: South Durban Health Study	190
p. 656.11 (25 / 2 to 2556)ea aaa. ot. eae		Box 10. 4 : Africa Stockpile Programme - Achievement
Energy		in South Africa	191
Map 12. 1: Relative country contribution to global		Box 10. 5 : Declaration of priority areas in South
carbon dioxide emissions in 2004	250	Africa	196
	230	Box 10. 6: The Basa njengo Magogo campaign	198
Map 12. 2: Global horizontal irradiation in South	254
Africa	251	Climate change
Map 12. 3: Location of the coalfields of South Africa	254	Box 11. 1: What is climate change and what is
Map 12. 4: Per capita carbon emissions for some		causing it?	209
global cities	265	Box 11. 2: Observed changes in the oceans	213
Map 12. 5: Population density of the City of Cape		Box 11. 3: Project Climate Change impacts on Town showing densities increasing with distance		ecosystems	220 from the city centre	266	Box 11. 4: South Africa's climate change activities in the global context	226
List of Boxes		Box 11. 5 : Key elements of South Africa's overall approach to mitigation	227
Introduction		Box 11. 6 : The role of education and research in	/
Box 1.1: The 2 nd SAEO	2	climate mitigation and adaptation	230
	_	Box 11. 7 : Analysis of gaps and future needs relating	230
Sustainability in South Africa			231
Box 2. 1: Sustainable production	17	to climate change in South Africa	∠31
DOX 2. 1. Justamanie production	1

Energy
Box 12. 1 :Cape Town: Darling Wind Farm	252
Box 12. 2: eThekwini: landfill gas project	253
Box 12. 3: Policy for the promotion of energy efficiency in land use development, Johannesburg	267
Box 12. 4: Joe Slovo Sustainability Advisor - Impleme	nt sustainable interventions in low-income housing	270
Box 12. 5: Cape Town Optimum Energy Future, 2011	270
Waste management
Box 13. 1: Modelling domestic waste collection methods: The case of Mafikeng	289
Outland for earlier
Options for action
Box 15. 1 : Impact on human quality of life and well-being	328
Box 15. 2 : Sustainability measures for new housing developments	345
Box 15. 3: Roles of government, private sector and civil society for waste management	349
Box 15. 4: What is good governance?	353
Box 15. 5: Evidence-based policy making requires more reliable data

354